

Gray & Cole, Ward Hill, Mass.

1956

HEMEROCALIS (DAYLILIES)

Yellow, orange, coppery-pink, brown, or red flowers. Thrive in part shade. Using several varieties, bloom from June to August.

	1	3	5
APRICOT. Very early apricot-yellow.	$1.50	.45	.40
BLACK LEOPARD. Glossy, gleaming black-red.	5.00
BRIGHT. Deep rose to light red.	5.00
FULVA KWANSO. Double Tawny Daylily.	.50	.45	.40
FULVA ROSEA. (ROSALIND). Coppery-pink.	.50	.45	.40
GOLDENI. Deep orange.	.50	.45	.40
HEATHER ROSE. Cream flushed peach-pink.	.60	.55	.50
HESPERUS. Best medium yellow. Large wide-open flowers.	.60	.55	.50
HYPERION. Best pale yellow. Large & fine.	.50	.45	.40
JEAN. Brilliant bicolor, red and orange. Late.	.75	.70	.65
MABEL FULLER. Velvety cardinal red.	2.50
MINNIE. Velvety mahogany red. Rich color.	.50	.45	.40
OPHIR. Best golden yellow. Large and fine.	.50	.45	.40
PAINTED LADY. Dusky orange, slightly ruffled. Noted for large size and heavy texture.	1.25	---	---
PURPLE WATERS. Wine red or brown-red.	.50	.45	.40
SHOOTING STAR. Pale light cream yellow. (Not for sale until 1957)

Add 20% for postage or we can ship express collect.

